

DPHMS REMOTE LEARNING PLAN

Spring 2020

Why? We teach nerds who are resilient learners. Our scholars deserve an excellent education regardless of setting and we aim to provide learning opportunities that will allow scholars to engage intellectually while also keeping them on pace with their academics. We believe that a balance of high-quality independent learning and daily "live" touchpoints with teachers will ensure your scholars' success during this time.

What?

- (1) Independent Class: Scholars complete work created by their teachers independently by watching pre-recorded lessons and completing the scholar work packet via Google Classroom every day. Scholars should follow this daily schedule.
- (2) Office Hours: Scholars can call/facetime/text/email/Jupiter message teachers for check-ins, SGI, and tutoring sessions.
- (3) Assignments: Each subject will assign three lessons for scholars to complete per week. Classwork for that subject should be completed when it is on the schedule.

How?

- All apps used for online learning will be accessible through Clever. Start each morning by going to clever.com/in/dpps to access:
 - Google Classroom: All independent classwork will be posted on Classroom 3 times per week
 - Edulastic: All mastery assessments will be posted on Classroom 3 times per week

FAQs

When will my work be due?

- Independent Classwork and Mastery Assignments: 24 to 48 hours after the lesson was posted to Google Classrooms. Your teacher will also assign a due date to each assignment using the same guidelines.

How will my remote work be graded? We will follow the general system we normally use via Jupiter. T3 will begin on Monday and any assignments that you submit will be added to the T3 gradebook. Teachers will be entering a minimum of 2 grades each week by Friday.

How will my attendance be taken?

1. When you sign into Clever to complete your independent work on Google Classroom
2. When you log onto Zoom for Class (a teacher will call you if you're missing!)
